

SAVANNAH.

Upon the recent capture of Savannah, by the Federal forces, a newspaper was started, by permission of the military authorities, the editor of which is Capt. Summers, U. S. Assistant Quartermaster, the first number of which contains the following:

"We will not be persecutors of any class, however objectionable their sentiments may have been. We believe it far better to 'deal gently with the erring,' and endeavor by kindness, or at least by justice and reason, to lead them into the right path. This was the principle announced and enforced by the commanders of the troops who first entered Savannah on the memorable morning of the 21st instant. The men were exhorted and commanded to conduct themselves with forbearance and humanity towards all its citizens, and refrain from pillaging and marauding and all acts of violence or misconduct. That some departures from these rules and injunctions have occurred is undoubtedly true, but we believe that well disposed citizens will admit that less mischief has been committed by Union soldiers than could reasonably have been expected. Acting upon this principle of kindness and humanity, we would not lend our paper or our influence to the oppression of those who candidly differ from us in opinion."

The official report of General Hood is said to have been received at Richmond. He claims to have crossed Duck River with seventy pieces of artillery. He also asserts that his losses in killed and wounded will not exceed in extent the casualties inflicted on the Federal troops.

Sixty thousand dollars in silver bars have been received at San Francisco from Idaho, the first shipment of silver from the new silver mines in Southwestern Idaho, which promise to rival those in Nevada.

The remission of a portion of the sentence of Commodore Wilkes was made in concurrence and consultation with the Secretary of the Navy and at the time of its taking effect designated by him.

About $400,000 has been expended in paying to the paroled prisoners at Annapolis the commutation of rations due them. Up to Saturday eight thousand had received their certificates.

Six companies of Canada volunteers have arrived at Windsor, where they have gone into quarters. They are to remain on the frontier till the first of May.

A Washington dispatch says that the Brazilian Minister is perfectly satisfied with the decision of the Government in the Florida case.

The Richmond Examiner of the 28th ult., says that the exchange of prisoners is about to be resumed at Wilmington.
